

The Dayton Motor Freaks are a savage group of individuals. They fight for power and glory in an attempt to win favor from the Dominator or Dominatrix. The Horde is not known for great teamwork and the goatheads have a tendency to run away at the first bloodshed on the part of the Pack, unless lead by the fierce power of the William or Wendy. Pack Dragon is equipped with shorter ranged weapons, but are strong at close combat. Pack Dawg is comprised of longer ranged weapons, but lack much punch in close. Samantha is a little fragile but packs great firepower and range. Her shot can vaporize those unfortunate enough to get in her way. The Horde is not a quick army with only William and Wendy moving at a quick pace. This tends to mean that the Packs are unable to react to the enemies movement as the battle unfolds. The two big leaders can therefore be used to put a high concentration of firepower in any gap that arises in the line. Be sure to use all cover that you find and screen the Horde leadership as they will kill many if protected. Enough tactics lead this awesome force upon the puny enemy and take from them what is rightfully yours.
